Sinclair Community College
444 E. Third St.
Dayton, OH 45402

Master Syllabus

NSG 2211 - Directed Nursing Practice

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Nursing

Credit Hour Total: 2.0

Prerequisite(s): NSG 2202AND NSG 2203

Date Revised: May 2013

Course Description:

Moves the individual from nursing student to beginning Associate Degree Nurse through a directed nursing practice. Applies concepts related to the professional role of the nurse in health promotion/disease prevention, management of care for a group of patients, clinical judgment, interpersonal relationships, responsibility, and accountability in the clinical setting. A minimum of one hundred fifty (150) directed practice hours per half semester.

General Education Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Oral Communication
- Written Communication
- Values/Citizenship/Community
- Computer Literacy
- Information Literacy

Course Outcomes:

Human responses to stressors
Integrate human responses to the pathophysiological stressors of a group of patients.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Health promotion and disease prevention
Assume the professional role of the Associate Degree Nurse to support health promotion/disease prevention and facilitate movement towards planned outcomes.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Clinical judgment and current evidence
Integrate clinical judgment based on critical thinking, nursing process, and current evidence to provide care for a group of patients and their families.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Patient-centered care of a group
Collaborate and delegate to manage patient-centered care of a group of individuals/families.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Health care continuum
Synthesize program content and previous clinical experience to provide care for groups of individuals and families across the health care continuum.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Caring interpersonal actions
Practice nursing with caring interpersonal actions.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve at least a 3 on the 5 point rubric of the Clinical Performance Evaluation Tool.

Outline:

Application of the following concepts in a clinical setting.

Role of the Nurse
Management of Multiple Patients
Communication and Conflict Resolution Healthcare Delivery System
Responsibility and Accountability
Professional Development