

Master Syllabus

AUT 1170 - Automotive Internship I

Division: Science, Mathematics and Engineering

Department: Automotive Technology

Credit Hour Total: 2.0

Other Prerequisite(s): Approval of Department

Date Revised: October 2012

Course Description:

Students work in the field at an approved automotive service business. The credit that is earned for the internship is applied toward degree requirements. Students prepare and submit reports online and are evaluated by the course instructor as well as their on-site supervisor.

General Education Outcomes:

- ▣ Written Communication Competency
- ▣ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency
- ▣ Computer Literacy Competency

Course Outcomes:

Online Co-op Project

Completion of a co-op paper assigned by the faculty coordinator.

Assessment Method: Portfolios

Performance Criteria: 80% acceptable completion of student weekly report outlining work activities accessed online and submitted for instructors review via online access.

Job Performance

Satisfactory performance on the job as indicated by the site supervisor.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria: Employer administered evaluation of 3 out of 4 on targeted questions.

Computer Based Training

Successful completion of assigned self-study computer based training accessed on the internet.

Assessment Method: External examiner

Performance Criteria: 100% Completion of Computer Based Training Modules assigned by the Faculty Coordinator.

Outline:

Hands-on work related to automotive service and repair