

Master Syllabus

COM 2278 - Communication Capstone

Division: Liberal Arts, Communication and Social Sciences

Department: Communication

Credit Hour Total: 1.0

Prerequisite(s): COM 2201 AND COM 2206 AND COM 2211 AND COM 2220 AND COM 2225

Other Prerequisite(s): AND Other One additional COM or JOU course

Date Revised: February 2014

Course Description:

Demonstration of communication skills and competencies through the development of a communication portfolio; independent study under the direction of a Communication faculty member. Five directed practice hours per week.

General Education Outcomes:

- Oral Communication
- Written Communication
- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Values/Citizenship/Community
- Computer Literacy
- Information Literacy

Course Outcomes:

Competency in Discipline

Demonstrate competency in major areas of the discipline of communication.

Assessment Method: Portfolios

Performance Criteria: Score of 70% or better on rubric

Communication Competency

Demonstrate competency in a variety of communication settings.

Assessment Method: Portfolios

Performance Criteria: Score of 70% or better on rubric

Communication Experiences

Analyze communication experiences.

Assessment Method: Portfolios

Performance Criteria: Score of 70% or better on rubric

Outline:

Demonstration of skills and theory acquisition in these, plus one additional, areas of communication study:

Mass communication
Interpersonal communication
Public speaking
Small group communication
Communication theory