

Master Syllabus

DEH 1309 - Lab for Dental Radiology

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Dental Health Sciences

Credit Hour Total: 0.0

Date Revised: August 2017

---

Course Description:

General Education Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency

Course Outcomes:

Intraoral radiographic techniques

Expose, process and/or mount various types of intraoral radiographic images.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70%

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70% on each skill

Mounting

Appropriately mount radiographic film and digital images.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70%

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70% on each skill

Extraoral radiographic techniques

Expose and mount extraoral radiographic images.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70%

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70% on each skill

Radiographic interpretation

Interpret and present radiographic findings.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70%

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria: Minimal competency grade of 70% on each skill

Outline:

Intraoral radiographic techniques
Mounting
Extraoral radiographic techniques
Radiographic interpretation