

Master Syllabus

DEH 2601 - Community Dental Health

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Dental Health Sciences

Credit Hour Total: 1.0

Lab Hrs: 2.0

Other Prerequisite(s): Restricted to Majors

Date Revised: June 2015

Course Description:

Introduction to community and public health concepts and community health education. Two lab hours per week.

General Education Outcomes:

- ▣ Oral Communication Competency
- ▣ Values/Citizenship/Community Competency
- ▣ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency
- ▣ Information Literacy Competency

Course Outcomes:

Community-based instruction

Integrate audience specific content and evaluation into community-based instruction.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better on performance

Essential public-health functions

Describe government and dental professionals' roles in public health.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better

Program planning

Use a variety of resources to plan community dental health programming.

Assessment Method: Oral examination
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better

Community-based assessment

Construct community oral health programs.

Assessment Method: Oral examination
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better on community projects

Oral communication

Collaborate with community partners to develop service-learning lesson plans for oral presentation in diverse community settings.

Assessment Method: Simulations
Performance Criteria:

Achieve 70% or better

Outline:

Essential public-health functions

Community-based assessment

Program planning

Community-based instruction