

Master Syllabus

EMS 2150 - Paramedic 3: Lecture

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Emergency Medical Services

Credit Hour Total: 5.0 Lecture Hrs: 5.0

Other Prerequisite(s): Approval of Department

Date Revised: February 2017

Course Description:

The paramedic student will explore management of the trauma patient and an in-depth discussion of the medical patient including assessment and management.

General Education Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency

Course Outcomes:

Trauma

Apply the knowledge gained in the area of traumatic emergencies within written simulated patient presentations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: On an examination created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering traumatic emergencies.

Medical Patients

Apply the knowledge gained in the area of medical patient management within written simulated patient presentations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: On examinations created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering management of the medical patient.

Neonatology

Apply the knowledge gained in the area of neonatology within written simulated patient presentations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: On examinations created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering management of the newborn.

Outline:

Obstetrics / Neonatology Trauma Neurological emergencies Endocrine emergencies Psychiatric emergencies Toxicology emergencies