

Master Syllabus

EMS 2175 - Paramedic 4: Lecture

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Emergency Medical Services

Credit Hour Total: 2.0 Lecture Hrs: 2.0

Other Prerequisite(s): Approval of Department

Date Revised: May 2014

Course Description:

This course is a complaint based approach to patient care. Students will focus on integrating pathology, assessment and patient care knowledge in the care of patients with multiple pathologies. Four classroom hours per week for eight weeks.

General Education Outcomes:

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving

Course Outcomes:

Integrated Care

Apply the knowledge and skill obtained throughout the paramedic program in managing patients through written / oral simulated patient presentations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria:

On an examination created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering the integrated care of the out of hospital patient.

Patient Assessment

Apply the knowledge and skill obtained throughout the paramedic program in the assessment of patients through written / oral simulated patients.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria:

On an examination created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering the patient assessment of the out of hospital patient.

Critical Thinking

Apply knowledge and skill obtained throughout the paramedic program in obtaining, deciphering understanding, and applying data related to the care of patients with multiple pathologies.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria:

On an examination created by the EMS department, 100% of the successful students will score at least a 70% on written examinations covering the critical thinking in the care of the out of hospital patient.

Outline:

Chest pain
Abdominal pain
Altered level of consciousness
Shortness of breath
Headache