

Master Syllabus

FST 1112 - Principles of Emergency Services

Division: Business and Public Services

Department: Fire Science Technology

Credit Hour Total: 3.0

Lecture Hrs: 3.0

Date Revised: June 2016

Course Description:

Overview of fire protection and emergency services; culture and history of emergency services organization and function of public and private fire protection services; fire departments as part of local government; laws and regulations affecting the fire service.

General Education Outcomes:

- ▣ Values/Citizenship/Community Competency
- ▣ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency

Course Outcomes:

Culture and history of emergency service organizations

Define and describe the culture and history of emergency service organizations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Obtain a minimum score of 70% on class examinations

Role of a public fire protection delivery system

Describe the role of a public fire protection delivery system within the local community as well as state and national organizations.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Obtain a minimum score of 70% on class examinations

Functions of a public fire protection delivery system

Describe the various functions of a public fire protection delivery system.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Obtain a minimum score of 70% on class examinations

State, national and private sector organizations

Identify the various state, national and private sector organizations that deal with fire safety issues and describe their individual role in fire safety.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria: Obtain a minimum score of 70% on examinations

Outline:

The culture and history of emergency service organizations
Role of a public fire protection delivery system
Functions of a public fire protection delivery system
State, national and private sector organizations