

Master Syllabus

FST 2252 - Fire Officer II

Division: Business and Public Services

Department: Fire Science Technology

Credit Hour Total: 2.0

Lecture Hrs: 2.0

Prerequisite(s): FST 2251

Date Revised: November 2014

Course Description:

Management, supervision, leadership and command of multi-company operations. This course meets the requirements of National Fire Protection Association 1021, Fire Officer II.

General Education Outcomes:

- ❑ Oral Communication Competency
- ❑ Written Communication Competency
- ❑ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency
- ❑ Computer Literacy Competency
- ❑ Information Literacy Competency
- ❑ Values/Citizenship/Community Competency

Course Outcomes:

Management of departmental functions

Demonstrate management of various fire department service and support functions such as inspection, public education, records management and communication.

Assessment Method: Standardized national examinations
Performance Criteria:

Obtain a minimum score of 70% on national examination.

Tactics and strategy of multi-company operations

Manage a multi-company emergency incident using the National Incident Management System (NIMS).

Assessment Method: Standardized national examinations
Performance Criteria:

Obtain a score of 70% or higher on national examination

Budget management for the company officer

Demonstrate the management of basic budget systems and management of line item accounts that would be under the control of the company officer.

Assessment Method: Standardized national examinations
Performance Criteria:

Obtain a score of 70% or higher on national examination

Management of human resources

Demonstrate various fire service human resource functions including improving employee performance, annual performance reviews, and disciplinary functions and processes.

Assessment Method: Standardized national examinations
Performance Criteria:

Obtain a score of 70% or higher on national examination

Outline:

Management of human resource functions

Management of departmental functions

Tactics and strategies of multi-company incidents

Budget management for the company officer