

Master Syllabus

MHT 2225 - Residential Technician Practicum

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Human Services and Behavioral Health

Credit Hour Total: 3.0

Lecture Hrs: 2.0 Practicum: 7.0

Prerequisite(s): MHT 1201

Other Prerequisite(s): AND Restricted to Majors

Date Revised: March 2013

Course Description:

Students in this course will demonstrate professional knowledge and skills for the residential technician including safety, health, communication, cultural diversity, residential services and the role of the residential staff. Two classroom, seven practicum hours per week at the agency for full 16-week semester. Four classroom, fourteen practicum hours per week for 8-week term.

General Education Outcomes:

- ▣ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency
- ▣ Values/Citizenship/Community Competency
- ▣ Written Communication Competency
- ▣ Oral Communication Competency

Course Outcomes:

Ethical and Professional Behavior

Demonstrate a knowledge and skills of professional and ethical expectations of the residential technician.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria:

Student will receive a 70% or better on written report.

Student will receive a 70% or better on supervisor report.

Role of Residential Technician

Demonstrate knowledge and skills of the role of the residential technician.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria:

Student will receive 70% or better on written report.

Student will receive 70% or better on supervisor report.

Residential Services

Describe the services provided at a residential setting.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria:

Student will receive 70% or better on written report.

Student will receive 70% or better on supervisor report.

Professional Communication

Demonstrate basic skills in interpersonal communication, conflict resolution and documentation.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria:

Student will receive 70% or better on written report.

Student will receive 70% or better on supervisor report.

Client Health and Safety

Demonstrate knowledge of procedures for response and maintenance of clients safety and health.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals

Performance Criteria:

Student will write written report on health and safety standards with a 70% score or better.

Student will receive a 70% score or better on supervisor report.

Outline:

Interpersonal Communication

Conflict Management

Role of Residential Technician
Services provided in Residential
Ethical and Professional Practice
Health and Safety of Residents
Cultural Diversity