

Master Syllabus

SCC 1101 - First Year Experience

Division: Liberal Arts, Communication and Social Sciences

Department: Liberal Arts, Communication and Social Sciences Division

Credit Hour Total: 1.0

Lecture Hrs: 1.0

Date Revised: June 2017

Course Description:

This course is designed to help new students make a successful transition to Sinclair Community College. Topics include college resources; academic, career and personal services available through Sinclair; learning styles; the learning process; financial responsibility; stress and wellness; and computer literacy through eLearn and library resources.

General Education Outcomes:

- Written Communication Competency
- Computer Literacy Competency
- Information Literacy Competency

Course Outcomes:

College Barriers

Distinguish the personal, academic and behavioral attributes that promote or impede success in college.

Assessment Method: Written surveys and/or questionnaires

Performance Criteria:

70% of possible points on rubric

College Resources

Investigate a variety of academic and student services available at Sinclair to promote individual attainment of personal, academic, and career goals.

Assessment Method: Exit and other interviews

Performance Criteria:

70% of possible points on rubric

Assessment Method: Written surveys and/or questionnaires

Performance Criteria:

70% of possible points on rubric

College Computer Literacy

Develop computer literacy skills as it relates to eLearn and Sinclair based websites.

Assessment Method: Locally developed exams

Performance Criteria:

70% of possible points

Outline:

Grit, Mindset, Learning Styles

Transition to College

Computer Literacy

Reading/Note Taking/Test Taking

Advisors, MAPs, Honor Code

Time Management

Sinclair Resources

Career/Career Communities

Financial Responsibility

Stress and Wellness