

Master Syllabus

VET 2107 - Technical Practicum I

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Veterinary Technology

Credit Hour Total: 2.0 Practicum: 14.0

Prerequisite(s): VET 1200

Other Prerequisite(s): Restricted to Majors

Date Revised: November 2012

Course Description:

Practicum course in which the student is paired with a screened veterinary practice in order to develop beginning practical skills within a hospital setting. Fourteen practicum hours per week in a Veterinary Practice.

General Education Outcomes:

- ❑ Oral Communication Competency
- ❑ Computer Literacy Competency
- ❑ Information Literacy Competency
- ❑ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving Competency
- ❑ Values/Citizenship/Community Competency

Course Outcomes:

Computer Applications

Describe the use of computer applications in veterinary practices.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on course specific rubric.

Pharmaceuticals

Describe the use of pharmaceuticals common to veterinary practice.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on course specific rubric.

Communication and Professionalism

Applies effective communication patterns with clients and veterinary staff.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on course specific rubric.

Outline:

-Professionalism in the hospital setting-Veterinary practice management-Introduction to common pharmaceuticals-Computer programs used within the hospital-Interaction and communication with clients and colleagues