

Master Syllabus

VET 2207 - Technical Practicum II

Division: Health Sciences

Department: Veterinary Technology

Credit Hour Total: 2.0 Practicum: 14.0

Prerequisite(s): VET 2107

Other Prerequisite(s): Restricted to Majors

Date Revised: November 2012

Course Description:

Practicum course in which the student is paired with a screened veterinary practice in order to advance practical skills within a hospital setting. Included are observational experiences to large, laboratory, and exotic animal facilities to advance experience with a wide variety of animals. Fourteen practicum hours per week in a veterinary practice.

General Education Outcomes:

- ▣ Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- ▣ Information Literacy
- ▣ Oral Communication
- ▣ Computer Literacy

Course Outcomes:

Pharmaceuticals

Discusses the advanced use of pharmaceuticals common to veterinary practice.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on end of course rubric evaluation tool.

Communication and Professionalism

Observes client interaction and applies advanced effective communication patterns with clients and veterinary staff colleagues.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on end of course rubric evaluation tool.

Computer Programs

Demonstrate the use of computer programs in veterinary practices.

Assessment Method: Performance appraisals
Performance Criteria:

Score of 3 or 4 on end of course rubric evaluation tool.

Outline:

- Professionalism in the hospital setting
- Veterinary practice management
- Introduction to common pharmaceuticals
- Computer programs used within the hospital
- Interaction and communication with clients and colleagues